PIPES THAT DON'T SMOKE, smell or carry dirt, and yet give a great amount of heat for the quantity of fuel used, are steam and hot-water pipes. You cut no large holes in your carpets, floors or walls, requires you to drop your change somewhere beside down the register, furnishes the room with an artistic radiator, takes away a desert air, and turns fall into spring. Perhaps we have left out something, but how much do you want for—well, just call and we will give you a rock bottom estimate.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Will Warner of Sandstone, on the 30th ult., a girl baby; weight 7 1/2 lbs.
Mrs. Bertha Harrington has been on the sick list for the past week, but we learn she is convalescing.
Geo. VanNess and wife of Petoskey have recently been visiting friends in this place and vicinity.
Mr. Gilbert Mitchell of Geneva, our next county treasurer, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday.
Willie Butler now drives a nice, covered milk wagon, but he furnishes the staple at the same old price.
Master Carlos Cole accompanied his aunt Lotie Blackman home to Hillsdale the other day for a short visit.
Sheriff Thomas' new residence (the old C. F. Allen homestead) is beginning to take on a modern appearance.
H. Y. Finch of Allegan and C. F. Kingsley of Kalamazoo have each ordered a Snow Bros' hot-air furnace.
The Teachers' Reading Circle will meet with Miss Lena Wise to-morrow (Saturday) evening at seven o'clock.
Holmes & Bilsborrow say the demand for the wonderful Falls City Coffee Pot increases as it becomes better known.
John Burns will run a closed vehicle to connect with all trains on the Central at Lawton. See his card on this page.
Though there are no regular services at the Presbyterian church for the present, yet the Sunday school meets at 12 o'clock as usual.
Anson Jones, formerly and for many years a resident of Paw Paw, died at his home in Texas township Monday evening, aged 73 years.
Justice W. R. Sirrine has moved his office to the rooms over Hawkins & Grimes' brokers office, directly opposite the Dyckman House.
Mr. S. H. Blackman has been in Grand Rapids the most of the week in attendance upon the meeting of the Odd Fellows' grand lodge.
Married, at the M. E. parsonage on the 15th inst., Wm. C. Gibson and Miss Grace E. Dewel, both of Kalamazoo, Rev. W. R. Stinchcomb officiating.
Mr. Fred Bilsborrow has gone to Albion, where he has property interests, and will hereafter divide his time between that city and Paw Paw.
Harry Showman says his great distress of late is reducing his stock so fast that he will have to buy more goods to finish the season out. See his adv.
On the 16th inst., at his office in this village, Justice W. R. Sirrine united in marriage Alexander Avey of Antwerp and Miss Ida Brandom of Joliet, Ill.
J. A. Waters & Co. announce in their new adv. to-day that they are "strictly in" the stove business and don't allow anybody or any firm to undersell them.
Geo. R. Addison has established himself in this place for the manufacture of cigars of all grades, and solicits local patronage. His factory is over Dansby's fruit store.
Master Joseph Thorpe is authority on orthography in the grammar room, having "downed" the whole school in a spelling contest last Thursday, winning two prizes thereby.
The members and friends of the M. E. church will give a reception and donation to Rev. W. R. Stinchcomb and family at the parsonage this (Friday) evening. All are invited.
Comrade E. J. Miller sent to this office Monday morning a twig from a Siberian crab tree in his yard which was in full bloom and untouched by the heavy frost of the preceding night.
Special attention is called to what Seward & Marshall have to say in their adv. about "pipes that don't smoke." There is nothing nearer perfection than a steam and water heating plant.

Hon. Albert M. Todd, candidate for governor on the Prohibition ticket, is announced to speak at Longwell's opera house at 2 p. m. to-morrow. Other speakers are expected to be present.

The annual meeting of the Paw Paw Masonic association will be held at the lodge room on Wednesday evening, Oct. 23d, at 7 o'clock sharp. All members should be present.

Miss Laura Stinchcomb is prepared to give instruction in music, both vocal and instrumental. Special attention given to children and beginners. Best of references. Call at M. E. parsonage.

Mr. Tuckey at the Paw Paw mills has thrown out the old purifiers and put in those of the latest improved make, enabling him to make a grade of flour unsurpassed by the product of any mill in the state.

Hon. J. J. Woodman has a Challenge churn that could not be bought at any price if he could not get another. The company which manufactured it is now located in Paw Paw. See their adv. on eighth page of this issue.

At the Democratic senatorial convention for this district, held at Allegan on the 16th inst., Oscar S. McGowan of Lawrence, the Populist candidate, was endorsed. Well, there is no use of two men wasting time on that candidacy.

The Coterie will meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. Warner Wednesday, Oct. 24. Topic: "Prominent Women of Our Time and Country." Each lady is requested to bring the name and some facts of interest concerning some American woman of prominence.

One of Alex. Robinson's horses was meandering around the Central tracks at Lawton the other day, when the fast train happened along, struck the animal squarely on the hip and landed it in a ditch fifty feet distant and reduced Mr. R.'s livery stock.

Mr. G. E. Grout of Three Rivers was a caller at this office Monday. He had been in constant attendance at the bedside of his brother Albert, night and day, for a week previous to the latter's death. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. French, of Niles.

Dr. Weaver, Democratic candidate for congress from this district, is billed for three speeches in this county—Bangor next Monday evening, South Haven Tuesday evening, and Decatur Wednesday evening—and will explain to the remaining few of the terrified just how it all happened.

One of the many lovely cloaks comprising Sellick's great stock is shown in their adv. on first page. Remember, this is only one of scores, to say nothing of coats and jackets. They are also showing an elegant line of the famous Lowell carpets, marked at astonishingly low prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Nixon of Belaire have been making a tour through Michigan on their bicycles. Mr. N., while calling upon friends here, made the remark that the roads leading from Paw Paw were nicer than those of any other place he had visited. Mr. Nixon was formerly of Waverly.

Broughton, before moving into the White House, closed out almost all of his left-over last year's cloaks. His new stock arrived after he moved, so that it is strictly "up to date." His business in cloaks and fur capes for the last ten days has been immense. His sales all through the store answer the question "Will the people follow the Busy Store across the street?" with a big yes.

The twenty-first annual convention of the Union association of superintendents of the poor of the state of Michigan will be held at Charlevoix October 24 and 25. The purpose of the convention is by addresses, the reading of papers and discussions, to obtain and diffuse information in relation to the management of public and private institutions, and the care of the poor in general.

The work of graveling the highway between this place and Lawton is complete as far as Dilley's corners—the portion assigned to Paw Paw to complete. This work has all been paid for by the voluntary subscriptions of our business men. Antwerp township is to gravel from Dilley's to the Durkee corners, and the Lawton people from that point to Central tracks. This improvement will materially benefit both villages.

The Farmers' Union was entertained in royal style at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor. Their motto was "Welcome." The program, which was well carried out, was wholly confined to the ladies in discussing the ways of canning, pickling, soft soap-making, etc. A paper on "Cooking Husbands," read by Mrs. James Nelson, produced much merriment. Adjourned to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Van Dorn on the first Wednesday in December.

The examination of O. W. Ludlow and Mrs. Ira Hurd before Justice Stockdale in Allegan, charged with the murder of the latter's husband, is completed so far as the taking of testimony is concerned, and the case stands adjourned to this morning. While there has been no direct evidence brought out implicating either of the respondents in the shooting, yet it is thought the justice will hold them to the circuit court, preferring to let a jury pass upon the relevancy of the proofs to the crime.

This community was shocked last Friday to learn of the death of Albert Grout, which occurred at his home west of town that morning. It was known that Mr. Grout was ill with pneumonia, but it was generally understood that his case was well in hand and a fatal termination was not dreamed of. Deceased was 63 years old, one of our best citizens, honored and respected by all, and his untimely taking off is a terrible blow to his family and friends. The funeral was from the late home Sunday afternoon, Rev. G. P. Linderman officiating; interment in the Cuddeback cemetery.

Rev. Fr. Rudolph Marker, a former pastor of St. Mary's church, and now located at Dearborn, has been a guest at the Rectory during the past week. Fr. Marker was a great favorite here in all circles and his visit was a source of pleasure to all who were privileged to meet him.

E. Smith & Co. are holding high carnival at the "whale clothing sale" at the long brick store. The multitude that visits the grand festival daily are startled with admiration to look upon the elegance of fabric and superior make of their suits and overcoats; then they do smile to know that prices are one-fourth to one-third discount of former prices.

James P. Doyle of Scott Lake was up in Esquire Rowland's court Tuesday, charged with assault upon one Hilburn Williams of the same place with intent to kill and murder. Now that is a serious charge and, if substantiated, would place James in an unenviable position. If his intent was anything in the line of doing bodily injury to Hilburn, he had reckoned without his host, for Hilburn licked him to a beautiful bluish—setting his nose awry, moving one ear back, and punning the side of his head to a jelly. Aside from the "intent," James wasn't in the fight to a degree worth mentioning. He was held in $800 to the circuit court.

Last Tuesday the home of J. M. Brown was invaded by a goodly number of relatives and friends, laden with good things enough to feast a small army of epicures. The day was bright, and so were the assembled faces—just the combination to insure a jolly good time. Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. D. Woodman, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Woodman and their daughters Winnie and Clara, Mr. and Mrs. Jason Woodman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Richmond and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Snow, with Mrs. Pritchard and little Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webb and little one, together with Mrs. Allie V. Hewson and little Fred, who helped to swell the crowd that came to pay its respects to Mr. and Mrs. Brown and their guests, viz: Mr. G. W. Harris of Corunna, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Howell, and Mrs. La Porte. The occasion was one long to be remembered by all who participated in it.

Our readers will remember the wrecking of a train on the Grand Trunk near Battle Creek on the morning of July 16 last, by which Fireman Crowe was instantly killed, and the prevailing belief that it was the work of men who went out on the big strike. The arrest a few days since of four men, all former employees of the road and all strikers, was a surprise to everyone except, perhaps, the officials of the road and the detectives who, it now transpires, have been continuously on their track ever since the occurrence and who claim to have evidence of a positive character against all of them. Their names are Stanley J. Knowles, John Bodevig, G. W. Johnson and Ernest N. Jewett. It is said that Bodevig has made a confession to the officers of his participation in the horrible deed. Bail in each case was fixed at $10,000 pending examination, which will be had some time next week.

A stranger with three young children asked for a night's lodging at Elijah Warner's, Monday evening, and as Mr. Warner never turns a worthy person from his door, they were taken in and cared for. They were intelligent and cleanly dressed. They stated that the mother had died and that their crops had all been lost by the hot winds of Western Kansas, and having nothing to live on this winter the man sold his household goods and started to go to friends near Jackson, this state. At Buchanan their money gave out and since that time they have been walking, the father carrying the youngest child, two years of age, in his arms. Before they left, Mr. Warner called on a few neighbors and soon had a sufficient sum to pay their fare to their destination. They took the train from here feeling very grateful to him who aided them in their distress. "—the greatest of these is charity."—Lawton Leader.

The 34th Annual Convention of the Michigan S. S. Association will be held in the City of Grand Rapids, Nov. 13, 14 and 15. The first meeting, on Tuesday evening, will be held in Lockerby Hall, and addressed by Major General O. O. Howard, U. S. A. The subsequent sessions will be held in the First Baptist church. The indications are that this will be the most largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the kind ever held in Michigan. This convention will represent the unified christian forces of the state in aggressive S. S. work; it is thoroughly interdenominational, therefore promotive of abiding social and spiritual fellowships. The program will be rich and varied and ably sustained by representative talent, both in and out of the state. The Grand Rapids friends guarantee free entertainment to all accredited delegates whose names are sent to Elmer E. Stanton, 151 Ottawa street, on or before Nov. 10th. Programs with full particulars will be sent out.
